BRIEF ABSTRACT OF LETTER.

NOTES AND ORDERS.

The following d.o from Mr Macenachie gives the facts of the case fully

O.O. 42

*Secy P. Secy
Department
12/1/1906
P. Secy*

Mysore,

19-106 6

Dear Mr. Madhava Rao

I have heard from Mr Colton this mail. He renews his request for a remittance of $ 1000 on account of the late Maharaja's statue and asks for a further £1000 on account of the busts which are now complete. I cannot be sure whether I ever wrote formally about the first £1000 as I can find no record of having done so. But I know that I mentioned the matter. Both payments are now due, so will you kindly give the necessary instructions to the Comptroller for early compliance.

As you are not familiar with the file relating to Mr Colton's commissions, I think I had better tell you as briefly as may be exactly how matters stand, so that you may know the obligations that you have to provide ~~for~~.

X sent to Govt. safe with 200 Rs. A. (1) Statue of H.H. the late Maharaja. Under the agreement of November (or ~~December~~ the original is not on the file with me) 1904, Mr. Colton is to provide a heroic bronze statue and two bronze bas-reliefs as well as designs and working drawings only of a canopy, pedestal, surrounding wall and enrichment thereof for £5000. This includes delivery well and safely packed, f.o.b. at port of lading in England. The sum of £5000 was to be paid in three equal instalments of £1,666-13-4, the first to be paid on execution of the agreement, second on completion of the statue in clay and the third on delivery of the bill of lading to the Agent, of Government.

(2) Busts of H.H. the late Maharaja. Please see G.O. No

Fl-3581-2 of the 10th December 1904. This provides for G.M.No266-04-05

the execution by Mr Colton of three busts of H.H. the late Maharaja for ~~£1,400~~ £1,400 to be paid in two equal instalments the first on approval of the model, the second on delivery of the busts on board at the port of lading.

(3) Bust of H.H. the Maharaja. Please see the same G.O
Mr Colton is to execute a bust for £600, payable in two instalments as above.

(4) Embellishments to surrounding wall. In his letter of the 9th October 1905 Mr Colton stated that his additional charge for 8 tigers in gold bronze, chains, and Mysore eagle finial would be £4,500. In his letter of the 30th November 1905 to Mr Colton Sir Krishna Murti intimated His Highness' approval of the tigers and chains and Mr Colton writing on the 29th December stated that he was putting them in hand. As some of the proposed embellishments have dropped out since then, there may be some reduction on this item. I will see to this while at home. For the present the liability may be taken at the amount mentioned.

The following liabilities have been incurred up to date.

Item (1).....	£ 5000
(2).....	£ 1400
(3).....	£ 600
(4)	£ 4500
	£ 11500

Out of this amount the following payments were made in January 1905. Item (1) £1666-13-4, and items (2) and (3) £1000.

The payments now required are the second instalment on (1) and the final instalment on (2) and (3). As to (1) Mr Colton only asks for £ 1000 instead of the exact third and I presume that that amount will be more convenient to the State. I would however venture to urge that payment be made promptly.

I may now refer to some other matters connected with the scheme. The total cost originally estimated was one lakh of rupees. This would have covered the original design which included an equestrian statue and ~~canopy~~ ^{pedestal} only. While the artist was in Mysore a general desire was expressed that the design should be changed to that of a standing figure placed beneath a canopy, with marble surrounding wall. His Highness approved of this idea and Sir Krishna Murti also on behalf of Government and the cost was practically doubled. Besides the expenditure set forth above you are now committed to a marble canopy and surrounding wall which may cost another ^{RS} ~~Rs~~ 50,000. Personally, I consider that the additional expense is eminently justified as it will secure you a beautiful and permanent work of art as well as a beautiful memorial of a ruler whose memory is endeared to his subjects and his family in a unique degree. Two mails ago I received a joint report from Sir Donald Robertson and Col in which both spoke most warmly of the completed model of the statue both as a work of art and as a faithful presentment of His Highness the late Maharaja. They went on to recommend that Mr Colton should be asked to complete the work in white marble rather than in bronze. This will be slightly more expensive but it would be most acceptable to His Highness and there can be no doubt that the execution of the whole work in pure white marble will be far more beautiful and effective than if the statue is carried out in sombre bronze. I have asked Mr Colton to let me know the extra cost involved and you will no doubt get his reply shortly. It would be a great advantage if orders could be given to go on with the canopy as soon as final dimensions and drawings are received. If this is done you will have to contemplate an extra grant in the current year of:-

Campbell

(1) Payments due at once: £2000 = RS 30,000

(2) Approximate cost of marble canopy Rs 50,000.

It may be less but one cannot tell yet.

Fortunately you will not, in all human probability have to spend two lakhs on famine relief and I venture to think that no manner of utilising ~~xxx~~ a part of the sum set aside for this purpose would ~~xx~~ appeal more heartily to the subjects of His Highness!

Yours Sincerely
E. M. Arnold

The amount immediately req^d is Rs. 30,000 + there is, for this, a provision of Rs. 53,000 in the current years Budget.

M^r. Latham was given another 500 in the order of the 25th January 1905.

The extra cost involved will soon be known + in the meantime, the Comptroller may be consulted as to meeting it from the provision indicated by the Private Secretary to His Highness.

* It is not clear from the receipt on what acct this payment was made. Perhaps it was on acct of Sir Sheshadri Iyer's Statue. Please see M^r. Chomabani's D.O. of 24-05. If it was so, the adjt of this amt against the grant of labh in the budget for the Statue of H^H the late Maharaja, approved in G.O. of 17-7-05. they have been delivered for transmission to India. In these circumstances it is not clear if the second payment on acct of the boats has fallen due according to the agreement.

There is provision in the Budget to meet the payments on acct of the Statue & the boats & if they have fallen due, orders may issue to the Comptroller to instruct Messrs. Coutts & Co to pay the amt to Mr. Cotton. A draft authorising payment is put up. It seems necessary to ascertain from Mr. Macdonald if the boats have been delivered on board at the port of loading & if the second payment has fallen due -

The cost of embellishments to surrounding wall is not included in the estimate sanctioned in G.O. of 29.2.04 and no orders adding this item to the estimate seem to have been issued since.

My dear Mr. Whiteley

With reference to Mr. Maconochie's D.O. No.42, dated 19th October 1906, regarding certain payments to Mr.
Colton, Sculptor, for the statue of His Highness the late Maharaja &c., I enclose a copy of a letter I have written to Mr. Maconochie on the subject.

Yours Sincerely

Dear Mr. Meconochie,

As desired in your letter No.D.O. 42

Addres

East India United Service
Club 16 St. James Sq:
London W.

dated the 19th October 1906, I have authorized the Comptroller to pay to Mr. Colton, Sculptor, through Messrs: Coutts and Co:

1) £ 1,000 on account of the second instalment of H.H. the late Maharaja's statue,

2) £ 1,000, being the second and final instalment on account of the busts of the late and the present Maharajas.

The latter payment is only due on the delivery of the busts free of charge on board at the port of lading. I presume Mr. Colton has done this, or will do so prior to drawing the amount.

The cost of ~~the~~ embellishments to the surrounding wall (£ 4,500) has not, I find, been included in the estimate for one lakh sanctioned in the Government Order of 29th February 1904. This will be separately provided for after you are able to ascertain and intimate the exact amount of the estimate.

As regards the marble canopy and surrounding wall, which you say, may cost another Rs.50,000, I shall await receipt of the final dimensions and drawings.

Yours sincerely,

I find that Colton has not paid the insurance and that the paper I sent you is really the policy. I enclose the account from Dicksee and Co and it would be well to instruct Coutts to pay it sharp. I also enclose a letter to you from Colton showing the present state of his account. It shows £.333-6-8 due on account of the statue and £.500 on account of the Sheshadri statue, the latter being due from the memorial committee. I gather that there is no particular hurry about the former amount. The canopy design has been delayed by consideration as to the best scale, but Colton promises it within the next day or two. I hope you are all well. I am going to see the Bourdillons today. The weather is simply arctic!

The busts are fully insured, so that in case of the least accident or defect kindly advise me at once. I have received from Messrs Coutts three thousand pounds, one thousand
